Horseshoe Lake Bill Vetoed by Governor

Action Kills Fund of $400,000 to Buy Lake; Plan Renewed Effort

Continued efforts of the Illinois Horseshoe Lake Commission toward development of the lake area as a state park and recreational area were pledged today by Henry D. Karandjef, Granite City banker and chairman of the Illinois commission, following veto of a bill providing funds for first steps of the project.

Gov. Otto Kerner vetoed last Friday a legislative appropriation of $400,000 for purchase of approximately 1700 acres of Horseshoe Lake bottomland as the beginning phase in the proposed development of the lake and its surrounding area in Madison and St. Clair counties.

Karandjef told the Press-Record that in view of the overwhelming majority by which the bill was passed in the House (104 to 3) and in the Senate (36 to 12), as well as the area-wide support given the proposal while it was under consideration in the legislature, "It is difficult to understand the governor's attitude," in rejection of the appropriation measure.

Governor Encouraged Project This is particularly true since the governor early this year encouraged commission members and area supporters to seek an appropriation through legislation.

"I am greatly disappointed that the governor could not see his way clear to grant the appropriation," Karandjef said. "The Horseshoe Lake area certainly is in need of development. Even though it is a blighted area, it still is used by many persons. In fairness to the people of the area, the commission certainly will continue in its efforts to bring about this accomplishment."

Karandjef added, "The commission certainly has done everything in its power to bring to a successful conclusion this phase of the development. Certainly we (the commission members) are indebted to those who worked with us to get the bill introduced, the larger number of people who supported the bill and sought its passage. This in itself deserves continued efforts toward accomplishment of the commission plans and we will continue working toward that end."

Acted on 2603 Bills In Gov. Kerner completed action this year's session of the legislature, approving 935 Senate and 1248 House bills and vetoing 208 Senate and 193 House bills in whole or in part. Kerner acted on more than 600 bills Friday to complete his work on this year's legislation. Two years ago the governor approved a total of

Criminal Trials Open Today for 63 Defendants

A criminal trial setting opened today in Madison county circuit court at Edwardsville for a total of 63 defendants named in 10 indictments, but final disposition is expected in only a few of the cases, according to court observers.

The charges range from murder to indecent liberties, and defendants include Joseph Bartylak, former state's attorney, charged with official misconduct and theft; Bartylak has been residing in St. Louis, where he has been hospitalized at intervals, and it was doubted that he would appear in court.

Two of the defendants were named in one of five indictments returned by the county grand jury Friday afternoon during a special session.

They are Ulas Davis, alias King Tut, 36, and Reggie Pastoriza, 23, both of Venice, charged with armed robbery with a gun and theft of four cases of whiskey from Dennis Herzig, a Vendalia salesman, last April 15 on Kerr Island. The other indictments charged crimes outside of the Quad-City area.

Placed second on the list is the case of Theodore Kellerman, 26, of Mason, charged with armed robbery at the Ben Onk drive-in liquor store in Granite City on Oct. 3, 1966.

His name has appeared on previous criminal trial settings without any action being taken, and he has been at liberty since. However, a court official said his case is now ready for trial.

Other cases listed have been pending for long periods of time. A Collinsville house burglary charge will be dismissed by the state's attorney's office, according to Gerald McGivern, assistant state's attorney, who reported that the victim refuses to testify. The victim said he only seeks the return of his property, guns, hunting weapons, McGivern related.

McGivern Friday charged apathy on the part of the public in prosecution of crimes, especially businessmen in forgeries cases. He said many are interested only in getting their money back and then refuse to cooperate in the prosecution of criminals.

No felony cases involving Quad-City crimes have been prosecuted since early this year, with continuances being granted for a variety of reasons, leading to an increasing backlog of cases.

One reason cited is that the county has only one public defender, who is paid $6000 per year, and that most defendants ask to be represented by the public defender.

He is Robert Trone of Edwardsville, who is named as the defense attorney for 49 of the 63 defendants in this week's criminal setting.

Clean Air Monitoring Unit to be Placed in GC

Mobile Unit to Arrive Wednesday; will be Set at 22nd and Adams

Location of a state mobile air pollution control monitoring station in Granite City this week was announced today by Henry Bieniecki, chairman of the city's clean air board.

The unit is scheduled to arrive Wednesday from Springfield and will be placed on the parking lot at the Illinois Power Co. offices, 22nd and Adams streets. Anton Telford, field engineer in charge of the Illinois Air Pollution Control Board's office at Collinsville, said the mobile unit will be at the site for two or three months.

The location was selected, Telford said, as it is a reasonably central point to conduct pollution study and because of the availability of electric power for the unit's monitoring mechanisms.

Automatic Mechanisms Bieniecki said the mobile station will not be open for public inspection. He explained it is an automatic recording and monitoring station, and access will be limited to Prof. Erwin Hoelscher, technical secretary to the Granite City board.

The unit is the third of its type to be placed in the Madison-St. Clair county area under Telford's supervision. The others now in operation are at Saugeat (formerly Moccasin) and at Wood River. Equipment in the station includes mechanisms for continuous recording of particulate matter, hydrogen sulphide and sulphur dioxide concentrations, Bieniecki said. It also will have a sulphation candle unit and a weather station which will record wind directions and velocity.

Valuable Information Bieniecki said the data obtained from the mobile station is expected to be of value to Prof. Hoelscher in evaluating contamination emission reduction programs that are to be submitted by local industries to the city's clean air board before next April 15.

The state Air Pollution Control Board also operates two stations in Granite City—one on the roof at the city hall and the other at Sacred Heart school, 26th street and Washington avenue in East Granite.

GC School Population Up Despite Census Loss

14,241 Students in GC; Slight Enrollment Drops in Madison, Venice

Despite an apparent drop in Granite City's overall population, as disclosed in a special census report to the city council last month, student enrollment in Granite City public schools has increased to more than 200 pupils compared to the six-day attendance figures reported at the same time last year.

Elsewhere in the Quad-Cities, enrollment in Madison and Venice schools declined slightly from the number of students one year ago. Administrative personnel in all three public school systems indicated last week that current figures are expected to rise somewhat as the school year progresses.

Several parochial schools in the Quad-Cities also show slight decreases in student registration for the 1967-68 fall term. Overall enrollment figures at the six parochial schools, however, disclose only a minor drop in the student population.

8 Quad-Cityans Drafted Friday

Eight Quad-Cityans reported to the county selective service office at Edwardsville Friday morning for armed services selection. From there they went to a St. Louis examining station for assignment to training camp.

The eight draftees are—Gary Eugene Grieve, David Erik Spiker, James Patrick Walker and Randall William Hildreth, all of Granite City; Harold Richard Mood, Erskine Horton and Taylor Turner, all of Madison, and William James Smith of Venice.

October draft quotas have not yet been announced.

The area's September draft originally was for 12 men. County draft officials said many youth's induction was cancelled and another postponed, so that others failed to appear Friday. They may have gone directly to the St. Louis examining station, a draft office spokesman said.

Discuss Wider Study Of Material Handling

About 40 officers and members of the American Material Handling Society will meet Thursday at the Southern Illinois University campus to discuss projects for broadening material handling studies at the university.

E. Reber Casstevens, assistant dean of the Division of Technical and Adult Education, who is making arrangements for the visitors, said the group will tour the campus, with emphasis on a special survey of the Science Building. SIU currently offers several courses in material handling under the Applied Science Program.

Arriving on the campus about 6 p.m., the group will have dinner in the University Center and go from there to the auditorium in the Science Building, where university officials will speak. Afterwards, participants will tour the building and other campus facilities.

The society is composed of industrial engineers from throughout the metropolitan area. They belong to the local chapter of AMHS.

The Madison County Zoning Board of Appeals is recommending to the County Board of Supervisors that three local requests for special use permits be granted.

Granite City Steel Co. proposes to operate a gun club in an M-3 heavy industrial zoning district in Nameoki township, while Ruby M. Barker proposes a private recreational area in Nameoki township, with rezoning of another tract from agricultural to M-2 general manufacturing.

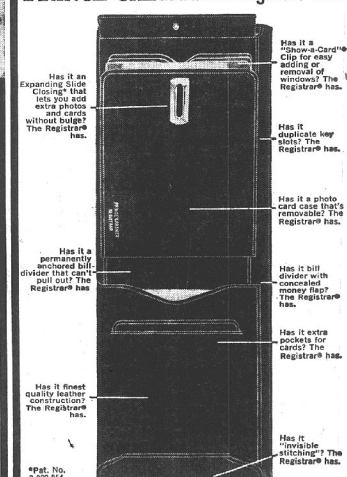

Collins, Rev. Ray F. Graham, Edgar Byars and Emmet Mosley received a favorable recommendation on operating an auto salvage yard in an M-1 limited manufacturing district in Nameoki township, provided that a suitable fence is built.

The scales for utility help is $1.60 to $1.65 an hour.

Jerry L. Williams Released from Navy

His parents, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Williams, 2811 Myrtle avenue, motored to Long Beach, Calif., to meet their son upon his release. His wife had been residing there.

The younger Williams was a Boatsman third class aboard the destroyer, USS Higbee, and had 18 months overseas duty at Vietnam and Japan. On the return trip to Granite City, the families visited Las Vegas, the Grand Canyon, Petrified Forest and other points of interest.

Access to Plant for Union Agents Ordered

The National Labor Relations Board in Washington confirmed on Saturday a trial examiner's ruling that it was an unfair labor practice last year when Granite City Steel Co. modified a grievance procedure unilaterally.

Examiner Samuel M. Singer charged in June that the firm limited contractual provisions concerning access to the plant by business representatives of Local 50, International Chemical Workers Union, AFL-CIO. He recommended that the company be ordered to cease and desist from failing or refusing to bargain collectively with the local.

The NLRB ordered Granite City Steel to restore to the business representatives unlimited access as existed prior to Sept. 7, 1966. It was told to revoke unilateral grievance procedure changes. However, union business agents are not to interfere with the progress of work or with the direction of work by the management, the board said.

New Image, Climate Goals Of Labor-Management Plan

The metropolitan region moved toward a new phase of labor-management cooperation with the formal launching on Saturday of LAMP—the St. Louis Labor and Management Plan—at a meeting at the Ink Air East Motor Inn, St. Louis.

"For the first time in the history of this metropolitan area—and as far as we know, in the history of the United States—leaders of labor and management representing an entire region have agreed to sit down together and work for improvement of the region's labor-management climate and image," it was asserted by William F. James, president of Bill James Enterprises, chairman of the General Lamp Committee.

Symbolizing unity of Illinois and Missouri sections of the region and the mutual stake in economic progress of the region's 2.5 million people, Mayor Alvin G. Fields of East St. Louis, Mayor A. J. Cervantes of St. Louis and Superior Lawrence K. Roos of St. Louis county shared the rostrum with members of the 35-man LAMP committee. They expressed confidence that LAMP can contribute to labor peace and the general welfare.

Membership Distribution
Membership of the LAMP committee is balanced between labor and management, between Illinois and Missouri, and between the building and construction industries and production and service industries. It is composed of four sections, each with three labor and three management representatives, plus a 17-man General Committee.

The General Committee consists of Chairman James, four labor and four management members-at-large, and one labor and one management member-at-large.

and one management delegate from each of the four sections.

LAMP has received official endorsement from more than 100 labor unions on both sides of the river, either directly or through their central trade bodies, and of over 750 business firms.

It has been formally endorsed by Gov. Otto Kerner of Illinois, Gov. Warren E. Hearnes of Missouri, U. S. Senators Stuart Symington and Edward V. Long of Missouri, and political and civic leaders in the eight-county metropolitan region.

D. Reid Ross, executive vice-president of the St. Louis Regional Industrial Development Corporation, creator and sponsor of the LAMP program said most major employers are represented.

Mediation Role Explained
LAMP is not expected to replace existing machinery for arbitration, mediation and conciliation of labor disputes, James stressed, it will not arbitrate and it will not negotiate, nor will it—unless requested by both parties—directly mediate or conciliate.

Lyle Gulley, Granite City Steel Co. executive vice-president, is a management member of the general committee.

Lloyd McBride, United Steelworkers District 34 director, is a labor member of the same group.

In the Illinois production and service industry section, D. J. Davis, president of the Castings Division of General Steel Industries, is the management delegate.

"We hope to operate as quietly as possible behind the scenes," said James, "acting as the voice of the community—helping to find the facts and to bring people together."

"For the first time a forum exists dedicated not to the cause of labor, not to the cause of management, but to the cause of the community—a forum which we hope will serve as the conscience of the community, and which will speak for the community when it feels necessary to do so."

Fact-Finding Function
Fact-finding is expected to be perhaps the most important function of LAMP, James said.

Guidelines adopted by the LAMP group require it to uncover the facts on an industry-by-industry basis as to labor and management practices which affect productivity relative to wages in the St. Louis area, and in the metropolitan areas competing with St. Louis for new industry.

LAMP will submit these facts to "relevant, appropriate management and labor groups" for review, comment and action.

LAMP will also take what James described as "other action, of jointly requested by management and labor."

"I realize this is an open-ended assignment," he said, "and it is deliberately so. Every situation, we are quite sure, will be different, and the role of LAMP in each situation will also be different."

Contact Other Agencies

When it is indicated, LAMP will submit the facts it has uncovered to other agencies. The RIDC staff will serve as LAMP's fact-finding task force.

LAMP is a community-wide approach to labor-management problems, James said. He invited both labor and management to use it as an instrument "which will prevent normal differences from getting out of hand and damaging the community as a whole."

Oscar A. Ehrhardt, secretary-treasurer of the St. Louis Labor Council, AFL-CIO, who with James and Ross was a prime mover in the formation of LAMP said he "holds out much hope for the beneficial results which are possible to flow from this first real organized attempt of management and labor to look at their relationship in an unbiased fashion, to see ourselves as we really are, and to move to correct that which we don't like about our relationship."

Discussing the image which St. Louis has acquired of being a "tough labor town and a tough management town," Ehrhardt said that "admittedly we have had some undesirable in the labor movement—as we have had in business." But hopefully, he added, "that is past history... and it behooves us to collectively see that it doesn't happen again."

Industrial Development

"If through LAMP we approach our task with the determination to correct whatever misgivings we have," Ehrhardt continued, "and to put our best foot forward in the quest for increased industrial development, there is no limit to the possibilities of this labor and management plan."

"We in labor are willing to play our part because it will bring to us new jobs and much more steady employment. To our industries, it will bring better business which will result in higher wages and to the community it will be an uplifting of our economic position."

Ross emphasized that the St. Louis region must "make the most of our strong points and create a labor and management climate in which out-of-town industries are willing to locate and in which St. Louis-based companies are willing to expand."

The LAMP approach to labor-management relations was first proposed in May 1957 after a series of RIDC studies had spotlighted the area's labor-management image as a major obstacle to economic growth, responsible for persuading some industries to locate plants in other metropolitan areas. Initial discussions with labor and management leaders were held as early as last fall.

Miss Walsh Becomes Bride Of David Joseph Andre

The wedding of Miss Cheryl Ann Walsh, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas E. Walsh, 2320 O'Hare avenue, and David Joseph Andre took place Saturday at St. George Catholic Church in Affton, Mo.

The Rev. J. E. Mayer officiated at the 10 a.m. service and a reception followed at the Flaming Pit in Crestwood.

The bride wore a gown of Chantilly lace and silk organza. The bodice was of lace and the bouffant skirt of organza was fashioned with ruffles of lace forming a train. A square, scalloped neckline was trimmed with sequins and pearls. A princess crown with seed pearls and crystals held in place an illusion veil, and the bride carried a cascade of white roses and greenery.

Mrs. James M. Deister, the bridegroom's sister, was matron of honor, serving with one bridesmaid, Miss Connie Walsh, a sister of the bride.

Dressed alike, they wore Empire gowns with cherry pink bodices and A-line skirts of light pink linen with chapel-length trains attached at the waist lines with large pink bows. Fabric headpieces were crowns with seed pearls secured to circular nose veils. Both held cascade bouquets of pink carnations and ivy.

The bridegroom, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Otto A. Andre of St. Louis, had his brother-in-law, James M. Deister, as best man, Gary Wegener, a cousin, and George T. Walsh, the bride's brother, were groomsmen and ushers.

After a honeymoon at the Lake of the Ozarks, the newly-wedded pair will live in St. Louis.

The former Miss Walsh is a graduate of Granite City high school. She is presently employed as a stenographer in St. Louis. Mr. Andre was graduated from Bishop DuBourg high school and is attending night classes at Washington University where he is a sales trainee. He is employed by International Shoe Co.

Warrior, Trojan Gridders Face Strong Conference Competition

Southwestern Conference

Belleville West

The Belleville West Maroons are rebuilding this fall, having lost 24 seniors from last year. Division of the district into East and West high schools also has depleted the team's strength to an extent.

Head Coach Bob Samples is optimistic, however. The only thing that he says is lacking on this year's squad is experience. Belleville has only six lettermen back, and all six are seniors.

With seven coaches, the most of any school in the Southwestern Conference, much individual training is in progress, aiding the younger players.

The defense will center around linebacker Keith Hladfield, a co-captain.

Samples reports that the Maroons appear to have adequate depth in their squad, and he will continue to platoon separate lineups on offense and defense.

He has been pleased with the success of the defensive secondary in avoiding being beaten by pass receivers on long aerials.

E. St. Louis

This will be an "off year" for the East St. Louis Flyers, but it isn't the first time that Coach Fred Cameron has been faced with a rebuilding problem and still won the Southwestern title. In the last 12 years under Cameron, the Flyers have run up a 102-157 record.

Last year, all the teams took their turns at punching the Flyers and East St. Louis barely squeaked by in four of its last five contests. But the Flyers have a winning tradition that always seems to bring them through to a successful season.

"Our one main weakness is finding some offensive running backs. With Pete Robertson gone we have to find someone to take his place, or change our offense quite a bit," Cameron reports.

The Flyers' schedule for the first three games is perhaps the roughest in this area—Solid, CBC and Alton.

East St. Louis has 15 experienced boys to build the 1967 season. The Flyers have continued practice drills despite the interruption of classes in East St. Louis.

Wood River

This will be the fifth year at Wood River that Wayne Williams has been the head football coach—the four-year record is 14-12-1—and the Southwestern Conference's fifth-place team last year may move up if it can find an adequate quarterback.

The Oilers have seven regulars and 19 lettermen returning from last season.

Jim Deworff is being moved from halfback and Ted Alterreiter to fullback to bolster the backfield.

Vying for signal-calling duties are Darrell Haynes, a letterman, and Roy Morris, who is a sophomore.

Defense is expected to be improved over last year, particularly the line.

Alton

The 1967 edition of the Alton Red Birds stands up to a solid contender for the Southwestern Conference crown this year. It has several starters from last year, plus many members of the 1966 sophomore team which went undefeated.

If experience is one way a football team can be judged, Alton ranks high. It has 24 of the 39 lettermen returning to do gridiron battle for the Red and White.

The offensive line is led by

Midwestern Conference

Cahokia

Local fans will get their last look at the Cahokia Comanches as a Midwestern Conference team this fall and a first look at the new Cahokia football coach, Gene Muzzarelli.

Cahokia has grown too big for the conference with its large enrollment, the school has more depth on its athletic rosters than rival high schools.

The Comanches and Bethalto appear to rank as title favorites this season, even though Cahokia has only one starter back from last year, Tony Moravec, who plays defensive end.

Halfback Steve Bailey is expected to help give the Cahokia team the extra ingredient that it seems to always come up with in its pre-season preparations to assure a successful record.

The Cahokia team anticipates that the season clincher will be played against Bethalto Nov. 3, when the league championship will be on the line if both schools win as many of their games as forecast.

Bethalto

Bethalto should have a good passing and running attack to aid its bid for the Midwestern Conference championship this fall.

The Eagles have two all-league stars returning to the gridiron battles, Ricci Stotter and Kenny Hammon.

Stotter has received national recognition as being one of the top 100 backs in the country.

Hammon is one of this area's top athletes, leading the Eagles' scoring last season. He is also the Illinois 180-pound wrestling champion, and was a sprinter on the Bethalto track team.

The Eagles will be returning from a 72 season under the direction of head coach Ed Hartweiger. Hartweiger has been at Bethalto for four years and during that time the football teams have had a 14-13 record.

This year, the line is the big question, and last week's impasse to 220-pound guard Steve East, who suffered a broken foot, was a thirteen lettermen will return to the Eagles' roster this fall, including Hammon, Cappy Prange, Harold Moran and Dave Swann, halfbacks; Steve Wolf, guard; Don Woelke, end; Tony Kruckelberg, tackle; Jerry Yarr, fullback; Chet Ward, tackle; Steve Burund, center; Jim Collins, line-backer; and Stotter, quarterback.

Roxana

Roxana will have a line this year that averages nearly 190 pounds, headed by all-league guard Dennis Allison and tackle Jack Schenck.

Roxana holds the honor of being the last team to beat Cahokia in a league game in the last three years.

The Shells may have a strong defense for four years and during that time the football teams have had a 14-13 record.

Rhubarb Ousts Mercer From Baseball Series

Granite City's Mercer team, Troy, against Polish-American local entry in the Southwest-Inter-City Baseball 54, the Troy Red Birds will meet the Collinsville Motor Motors Sunday when it had to forfeit a game at Pocahontas after being in the fourth inning 4-4.

The forfeit was for refusing to play the game under the circumstances that Pocahontas wanted to play. It all started with a play at the plate when a Pocahontas player was out by three feet at the plate but ran into the Granite City catcher and knocked him against the backstop.

When this happened, Don Crabtree, manager of Mercer, told the players to pack their equipment and leave.

Following the game there was a near free-for-all when a fan came onto the field and kicked one of the Granite City players, Charles Johannmeier, who was chased and caught him. The two teams then swarmed about the fan and player, and the dispute ended.

The Pocahontas win means that next Sunday it will meet East Alton in a Blue Division game at East Alton. The survivor then will take part in a two-out-of-three game series with the Red Division survivor.

Triad

Triad, a newcomer to the Midwestern Conference grid wars, should be the strongest this year. At its halfback positions, where Ed Borst and Bill Huston hold down the starting duties.

Triad is relatively inexperienced in football because this is only its third year of any kind of competition.

The team, assembled in 1965, has a number of non-veteran players in 1965 and 1966.

As the newest member of the conference, Triad is looking to have its hands full when it battles Cahokia in its first league game. Cahokia has been a passing game, and it is looking to have its hands full when it battles Cahokia in its first league game.

Cahokia is out of our class and we will definitely have all that we can handle," Coach Bob Catalpa comments. "Their junior varsity team beat us pretty badly last season."

With only 35 players, there is an acute lack of depth at many positions and Triad will have to back up with experience beyond the freshman level.

Highland

Highland's head football coach, Frank Prehal, believes that his team's running game will depend on the success of halfback Darrell Haynes, who last season was the leading ground-gainer for the Bulldogs.

Prehal is a big part of our offense last year and will be an even bigger percentage this year because we won't have as strong a passing game," said the coach.

Joining Gentry are 13 other lettermen from the 1966 season, when Highland finished third with a 2-8 conference record. It had a 5-4 season record.

Bob Roe, Bill Braswell, Darrell Haynes and Ray Moore will be competing for tackle positions, with Ernie Chappell, Bob

Dupo

Dupo, having won only two league games in the last two seasons, is looking to its younger players for improvement in this year's win-loss record.

Head Coach Paul Stewart reports that Dupo's main strength this fall may be in its "up the middle" plays. Big men on his line are Mike Weber, 200-pound senior tackle, and David Lucher, 195-pound senior tackle, will be the mainstay of the line.

Dupo has not yet developed a strong center prospect, and there is a lack of breakaway speed.

Returning Dupo lettermen include Gary Camp, end; Wade Foster, quarterback; Mike Lant and Bob Walls, halfbacks; and Paul Weber, fullback.

Cross-Country Runners Open With 22-39 Win

Coach Richard Harmon's Granite City high school cross-country team opened its season with a 22-39 victory over Triad at Wilson Park Friday.

A Triad runner was the first to finish the run, which was slightly longer than the usual 1.9-mile distance due to routing around the park ice rink, where seeding was in progress. His time was 10:33.

Despite trailing the front runner, GCHS captured all but one other place among the first 13 finishers, fifth place.

Gary Oxford, a senior, recorded his best time of 10:36, second place, Richard Hall, a senior, was third at 10:37 and Ricky Roe, a sophomore, finished fourth in 10:42.

Moss Top Winner in Park Tennis Tournery

Dave Moss of Granite City prevented his former coach from retiring a magnificent Granite City park district three-year traveling trophy as he defeated Ron Underwood in the finals of the men's singles 7-5, 6-4, 6-1 Sunday.

Underwood, a former Granite City coach who now resides in Murray, Ky., had beaten ex-pupil Moss in the finals the previous two years.

Seven events were held and drew 53 entries. Granite City players walked off with seven trophies, as they captured five events and placed second in two others.

Local winners included Robert Malotki, who beat Randy Edmiston of Collinsville 6-4, 6-3, in the junior singles final; Virginia Bozarth, who edged Bev Rusick, also of Granite City, 3-6, 6-4, 6-3 in the women's singles final; Terry Balzer, who beat Joey Van Buskirk 7-5, 6-3 in the all-Granite City 14 & under final; and Moss, who won his second event teaming with Monroe Sloane of Paducah, Ky., to win the men's doubles 4-6, 7-5 over Ron Selick of Alton and Paul Rowton of Paducah.

Paul Rowton won the 35 & over singles, whipping Bob Hardy of Springfield, 6-3, 6-1, 6-4. Hardy teamed with Jerry Edmiston of Collinsville to beat Royton and Monroe Sloane 13-11, 6-4 and win the 35 & over doubles crown.

Moss coasted to the final of the men's singles with a bye, a default and a 6-1, 6-2 victory over Paul Rowton. Underwood had the more difficult time, as he needed a 3-6, 6-4, 6-3 win over Ron Selick to reach the final.

Malotki had a tough time disposing of Louis Mehl of Granite City 2-6, 6-4, 6-3 to reach the junior final, while Randy Edmiston won the 14 & under final.

Everyone gives watches for graduation gifts.
Why don't you be different?

What's so special about watches, anyway? They're all made up of mainstays and hairsprings. A balance wheel. And a lot of other delicate mechanisms. They have to be. It's those things that make a watch run. Be it fast or slow. Or maybe not at all.

So why give someone an ordinary watch? You could give an Accutron® timepiece instead.

Accutron has no hairspring. No mainspring. No balance wheel. They're replaced by a tuning fork. (That's it in the center of our Spaceview model.)

The tuning fork does everything watchworks are supposed to do. Measure time. Only it does it more accurately. By vibrating 360 times a second.

And sending the hands around the dial so precisely, we can guarantee monthly accuracy to within a minute.

About 2 seconds a day. Could a gift be more perfect?

'Charity Days' Festival Set for Friday, Saturday

Fifteen service groups will take part in this year's "Charity Days Festival," to be held Friday and Saturday in the parking area at Nameoki Village shopping center.

Response to the project has grown each year since the idea originated three summers ago. Melvin T. Gillis, W. T. Grant Co. manager, explained. Again this September, the charity days festival will be given under the auspices of business firms located at the center. James Henderson of Lueders Agency is serving as the project coordinator.

Local organizations will each occupy a decorated booth and offer a variety of items for sale to the public. Booths will be open between 11 a.m. and 8 p.m. Friday and Saturday. Proceeds derived from the two-day affair are retained by the individual organization and used to support various charitable enterprises.

Participating groups include: Gabriel Shrine 74, White Shrine of Jerusalem; OCAW Women's Auxiliary, Union Starch and Refining Co.; Mexican Honorary Commission; Delray Rebekah and Odd Fellows lodges; St. Elizabeth Hospital Auxiliary; American Legion Auxiliary, Tri-City American Legion Unit 113; Church of the Latter Day Saints; Madison County Historical Society; the United Fund; Venice Junior Service Club; YMCA; Cloverview Garden Club; Marshall school PTA; Madison Auxiliary Police Corps; St. Louis Stake Primary Association; and Women of the Moose, Chapter 247.

Pet Show for Children Set for 2 P.M. Saturday

A pet show in the garden shop at the W. T. Grant Co. store, Nameoki Village shopping center, will be held at 2 p.m. Saturday for children 6 to 14 years of age. The owner of the most unusual pet is to receive a Parakeet, and a canary and cage will be awarded the boy or girl for best handling and showing of pet.

Grant's also is featuring a "Name Our Mynah Bird" contest in which the winner will receive a gold wish globe and four fish.

You and Your Money

SIX KEYS TO FINANCIAL SUCCESS

by
Ernest A. Karandjeff
President

Granite City Trust and Savings Bank

Many people, as they get older, wonder why they haven't given more attention to the financial aspects of living. Many ask, "Why didn't somebody tell me sooner?"

Unfortunately, we all spend a lot of time and effort on things that aren't really so important to us. We shop to save a few dollars on individual daily purchases or on the little things that we need for our home. But these are once-in-a-while savings which in the long run aren't too significant.

What are the really key areas?

ONE... Have a definite savings plan. If you don't have one it's time to stop and make your plans. If you look through your list of regular purchases, you can find many things to cut so that you can create a regular savings program. Accept the regret, if there isn't one single item you can eliminate, then trim a little on everything that you spend.

TWO... Consider your insurance program. If you buy casually and without proper planning, you will wind up with a casual insurance program. Start it right, think about it or review the program you now have so that you can create and adequate retirement program.

THREE... Your budget. This could well have been listed as number one because of its great importance. With most of us, the man isn't the one who prepares the budget. Let's face it, the women are the ones who make the budgets and who follow them. Many of us don't have a budget until after we're married and if we don't have then, it's like being at sea without a rudder.

FOUR... What you do about housing. Whether you rent or buy, how you handle this major item will have a lot to do with your financially happy or unhappy life. Make it a point. Understand before you buy what it is that makes people consistently move to different homes at a financial loss.

Buying a house right can often make a man financially better off than four job promotions. If you buy the biggest bargain in town, in the wrong neighborhood, you can wipe out bargain savings on your first move.

FIVE... Your credit policy. This affects the whole atmosphere in your home. If you have a policy of using credit to a certain extent and no more, you will have peace of mind. If you have a credit policy which you know you can handle, and you ignore it, your life will be miserable. You'll have a nervous moment before you go around every corner, or before you get out of bed each morning.

Credit changes the price of every item you buy. It's an error to use too much credit. An equally serious error is to use too little. If you establish no credit, you cut yourself off from a huge emergency reserve which you owe to your family... and perhaps your business. Also, if you insist on paying off your mortgage too fast—strapping your family to a spartan budget to do it—the best part of your life may go by in a cold austerity program.

SIX... Education. And not just for the kids—but especially for yourself. A business grows because capital is poured back in for expansion. A person also grows because capital has been poured back in to expand skills and experience.

Those are six keys to your financial success. It's deserving a lot more time and attention than the time many of us spend shopping for more trivial price advantages.

For financial assistance and banking services, you are invited to consult with Mr. Karandjeff or any of the other officers at Granite City Trust and Savings Bank, 1900 Edison Avenue.

Dedicate New Sunset Hill Cemetery Artworks Sunday

Henry D. Karandjef, president of the Sunset Hill Cemetery Association, announced today the completion of the erection of two granite features at Sunset Hill Cemetery in the Garden of Faith and Masonic Garden. A dedication ceremony is to be conducted Sunday, Sept. 17 beginning at 3 p.m.

The public is invited to attend the ceremony, to be held at the cemetery located on Illinois Route 157 between Granite City and Edwardsville. Largest of the features, centering the Garden of Faith, carries a mural carving on each side. One carving depicts Christ in prayer at Gethsemane; the other side is a reproduction of Albrecht Durer's famous "Praying Hands."

The second feature is a Masonic altar to center the Masonic Garden section. The altar is enriched with pilasters in Greek Doric order and is topped by a Bible opened to the concluding verses of the Book of Ecclesiastes.

The altar bears not only the familiar square and compass, emblematic of Masonry in its broadest space, but also 15 emblems, representative of the organization from Eastern Star to the Job's Daughters and from DeMolay to Commandery, Consistory and Shrine.

Granite used in both features is dark "Carnelian," unique to eastern South Dakota. The features are intended to enhance the cemetery garden areas.

Dr. Troyer to Speak

The dedication program, to be presided over by Karandjef, will open with the invocation by Dr. Raymond E. Troyer, president of the Quad-Cities Ministerial Association, followed by eulogies presented by the Masonic organization, American Legion and Veterans of Foreign Wars.

Dr. Troyer will present the principal address. There will be an organ recital by Ruth Huff and a welcoming address by Karandjef, who will introduce cemetery trustees and Mayor Donald Partney of Granite City and Mayor Raymond Rogers of Edwardsville.

The ceremony will conclude with the benediction by Dr. Troyer.

After the program, visitors will have sufficient time to tour the cemetery, which also contains the Garden of the Cross, Garden of Devotion, Monumental Section and one of the largest masonic temples in Southern Illinois.

Real Estate Personal Property Assessment List For The Year 1967

Herewith is a list of real estate and personal property assessments as made by the township assessors of Venice township, Madison County, Illinois, and returned to John Maerbas, County Treasurer and Supervisor of Assessments.

The assessed values shown are subject to revision by the Board of Review and to equalization by the State Department of Revenue. Under provisions of Section 146 of the Illinois Revenue Act of 1939 as Amended in 1945, the Department of Revenue is required to determine the percentage relationship within each county of assessed value and the estimated full fair cash value. Department is required to raise or lower the total locally assessed value so that all such property will be assessed at its full cash value.

These equalized values then become the base for tax extensions for 1967 taxes payable in 1968 and indicate the full fair cash value of the properties assessed, based on the assessed value as made by the local assessing officials.

This publication, which is made in accordance with Section 584 of the Revenue Act, serves as a public notice to the taxpayers of the county of the assessed values fixed upon their property by the township assessor of the aforesaid township. Taxpayers who consider their property incorrectly assessed may appear before the board of review and file a complaint in writing within ten days of date of publication, or within such time as otherwise provided by Section 589 of the Revenue Act.

MORE ABOUT Local Carpenter

Harder called the sheriff's office. The cow was near the body and unharmed when her husband was found.

With Mrs. Harder at the trailer home was one of her two young daughters, the other having spent the night at the home of the child's sister in a nearby home.

Father of five daughters, three of whom are married, the veteran carpenter told Alto reporters several weeks ago that he feared for his life because he was initiating a move to kick out young hoodlum elements that allegedly had infiltrated Local 1808. He said his income was dwindling due to being denied regular carpenter work which he disputes with other members had arisen.

Checked Members' Records Mr. Harder said he was checking on criminal records, backlogs and activities of some members. He said there had been attempts to intimidate him, and that he feared he would be killed.

He said he had compiled a detailed list of arrests and assaults allegedly committed by two carpenters, and planned to discuss the information at a public union meeting.

Auto Battery Stolen

Robert Hebblethwaite, 2474 East 24th street, reported at 1:45 a.m. Sunday that a 12-volt battery was stolen from his 1960 auto while it was parked at his home during the night.

He said he had been proud to work as a carpenter in Canada, "but I am ashamed to be a carpenter here" due to what he regarded as the hoodlum element.

He said he was placed on a union "blacklist" after opposing the beating a few months ago of a union member, Pete Kladar. He alleged that hoodlums obtain many "good jobs" in the local, and said he had once been asked by a union member to beat another carpenter.

Mr. Harder alleged that he knew who had burned unfinished homes in Madison county.

A local resident four years and previously a resident of Detroit, Mich., for eight years, he had been a member of the Wood River local for three years.

Survivors besides his wife are five daughters, Mrs. Carl (Marlene) Fisher, East Alto, Mrs. Marion Hooks, Rural Route One, Mrs. Paul (Marilyn) Dravitzius, Detroit, Linda Harder, 11, and Tammy Harder, seven years, and four grandchildren. Funeral arrangements are given in the obituary column.

Copeland-Foster Wedding Saturday in Austin, Tex.

Of interest here was the wedding Saturday in Austin, Tex., of Miss Cleo Foster, a daughter of the late Dr. Jackson W. Foster, and Mrs. Foster, of Austin, and Richard Dennis Copeland, whose parents are Mr. and Mrs. Richard W. Copeland, 2570 State street.

The evening ceremony took place at 7 o'clock in the home of the bride, "The Castle." The Rev. James W. Morgan heard the vows of the couple. A reception was held immediately afterward, and the bride and groom left for a trip to the west coast.

The bride wore a gown of white silk organza banded with rows of French silk ribbon. A veil of illusion was held by a face framing of French silk leaves and flowers and she carried a cascade of staphenitis which fell to the hem of the gown.

Miss Ann Blanton, maid of honor, and Mrs. Donald Haynes, Miss Kristin Mitchell, and Miss Megan Marten, bridesmaids, were dressed alike in medieval gold organza and chiffon gowns with matching headpieces of leaves. They carried bouquets of bronze daisies. Jackie Boggsian, the bridegroom's niece, and Jeffrey Robinson, a nephew, served as flower girl and ring bearer. The former carried a silver basket.

The bridegroom's father was his best man, and the cups of groomsmen and ushers consisted of David Keltner, Warren Steffens, Peter Foster, a brother of the bride, John Stallworth, and Allen Neighbors.

The former Miss Foster attended Stephens College for two years where she was a dance major. She is presently performing as a member of the Austin Ballet Co.

Mr. Copeland has a B.A. degree in zoology from the University of Missouri and this summer has been employed by the National Lead Co.

800 Freshmen to Attend Orientation at SIU-SW

Eight hundred freshmen are expected at Southern Illinois University-Southwestern campus Monday and Tuesday of next week.

In a pre-orientation program, held Aug. 21-25 and Sept. 6, 7, 8, 11 and 12, freshmen were advised about classes, registered and given car stickers. The pre-orientation program was limited to small groups.

Janet Wells and Dick Chamberlain, both of Collinsville, are co-chairmen of the student orientation committee. The program is planned to advise and inform the student in all areas of university life.

University President Delyte W. Morris will welcome the students in the University Center. President Morris' address will be followed by a series of discussion groups limited to 20 students.

Each led by student orientation leaders. Subjects for group discussions will range from university attitudes and customs through sex, drinking, religion and cheating.

Orientation leaders were required to read "Campus Values," a publication based on a study made by Northwestern University, as a part of their leadership training, and from this book topics for the discussion groups have been drawn.

At 3 p.m. freshmen will attend the annual Activities Fair at which campus organizations provide booths explaining the functions of each organization and giving requirements for membership.

Following the fair students will be served a picnic dinner at the campus Tower Lake and may participate in annual freshman games, the highlight of which will be a tug-of-war across the lake. At 7:30 p.m. the movie "Mondo Cane" will be shown at the University Center ending Monday's activities.

Breaks between the main activities are being filled with talks by various campus groups and departments. These talks will continue on Tuesday following a welcome by Thomas W. Hanauer, dean of students, at 9:30 a.m. and addresses by University Center Board Chairman Lyle Ward, Alton and Program Council Chairman Jeanne Binsinger, Wood River.

Coke breaks will be provided through the courtesy of the Alumni Association. At 4 p.m. students may pick up their books in Lovejoy Library.

An all-student dance Friday evening at the University Center will complete orientation activities.

Dog Tied to Bike Leads To $17,500 Damage Suit
A dog tied to a bicycle is attributed as a cause of an accident last Feb. 15 in a $17,500 suit in Madison county circuit court at Edwardsville, filed for Ricky White, then five years old, by his father, Clyde White, against Gary Chappel of Granite City.

The complaint alleges that Chappel was riding his bike, with the dog attached by a rope, on the sidewalk at 2523 Madison avenue when the bicycle struck the White boy, causing severe and permanent injuries. Negligence was charged in that the dog allegedly made the bicycle unstable and hard to manage.

Clogged Sewer Leads to $1500 Suit for Damage

Claims that a sewer was clogged led to the filing of a $1500 property damage suit against the GM&O Railroad and the city of Venice in Madison county circuit court at Edwardsville last week.

The plaintiff, John Grebas, alleges that he had merchandise valued at $1500 stored at the home of Norman Adams, 500 Main street, Venice, in November 1965, and that the materials were ruined when sewage backed up into the house. The complaint alleges that the city permitted the railroad to dump waste materials into the sewers.

$15,000 Suit Filed Over Minibike Accident

A $15,000 damage suit was filed last week in Madison county circuit court at Edwardsville for Robert Simpson, 13, of Granite City, by his father, Joseph Simpson, against Rooney Hellemeyer of Bethalto.

The complaint alleges that on Aug. 1 the boy was riding a minibike on the shoulder of the road along Route Three near the Granite City animal shelter when Hellemeyer's auto crossed over into the wrong lane and collided with him, causing severe and permanent injuries. Negligence was charged.

Parking Lot Accident

Optimists Hear Outline Of Juvenile Program

Donald Hornberger, an Illinois Youth Commission community service worker, discussed his newly-initiated delinquency prevention project here with the Granite City Optimists at the club's weekly afternoon luncheon meeting Thursday.

The project is geared to attack the root causes of juvenile delinquency through recruiting interested individuals in specific areas to serve committees and other action groups that would work to convince youth in their neighborhoods of the futility of crime.

Hornberger reasoned that adults working in their own community, by virtue of their closeness to the conditions that might foster delinquency, would be in a more advantageous position to prevent delinquency than agencies and institutions set up from the outside.

Police Sgt. Harry Mitchell, who introduced the guest speaker, emphasized that police go to work after a crime. "Police work is basically punitive, not preventative," he added.

The various committees and sub-committees in "The Neighborhoods Uniting for Delinquency Prevention" program are to work closely with the police department, school administrators, health and welfare agencies and local service clubs interested in youth, Hornberger explained.

The Coordinated Youth Service office, 1930 Edison avenue was allowing him to work out of their office, he said.

Alan LeMaster, police department juvenile officer, also was introduced.

James Rogers, the guest of Louis Paschoff, Dr. John Reel, guest of J. H. Solengerger, and

Horseshoe Lake

1931 built and turned down 350 for both houses of the assembly. The legislature reconvened in Springfield this morning in a session adjourned from July 1, with the announced purpose of considering the governor's veto actions. There appeared little likelihood, however, that any of the veto would be overturned since Republican majorities in both House and Senate are sufficient to muster a two-thirds vote without Democratic help. Such help is improbable in any effort to embarrass Governor Kerner, a Democrat.

While there has been some effort to open the session to consideration of new legislation, or reconsideration of bills that were lost in the mid-summer session, this, too, appeared unlikely. Leaders of both branches of the assembly have pointed out that a move would result in lengthy extension of the session, probably into several months.

Among bills approved by Gov. Kerner Friday was one authorizing construction of a regional World Resources Center for Southern Illinois University and providing an appropriation of $284,000 for a feasibility study for the project. Results of the study will be a deciding factor in where the $16 million project usually is located, it has not yet been determined whether it will be built at the Southwest Missouri State University.

The facility will be a center of computerized data inventorying the world's resources, including raw materials, minerals, food sources, its chemicals and people. It would provide instantaneous current statistics from all over the world and would be made available to any nation or person wanting its service. A bill appropriating $450,000 as a loan to the city of Edwardsville for construction of a water treatment plant at Poag around the southwestern boundary of the Southern Illinois University-Southwestern campus.

The governor also approved a bill appropriating $400,000 as a subsidy for the Bi-State Transit System, but the bill will be inoperative since release of the money is contingent upon approval by the state of Missouri of a similar subsidy bill. The Missouri bill was lost in the closing session of the assembly.

Votes Higher Pensions Vetoed measures included a bill which would have increased millions for increasing pensions of teachers already retired, and another that would have provided $250,000 to the Southwest Regional Port District to acquire land at Bi-State Parks Airport. The governor also vetoed a bill which would have appropriated $2.4 million for increasing pension benefits of state employees. He also vetoed a measure calling for a study of all aspects of state employment and personnel employment. It carried an appropriation of $25,000 for the study.

Also vetoed was a bill providing $20,000 for revision of Illinois township laws.

2 Small GC Boys Capture Brown Bat

At dusk Saturday two small boys were playing alone on their front lawn before being called in to bed when suddenly, a bat swooped down out of nowhere and attacked one of the boys. This happened to the Dugan boys in front of their home at 2045 Fourteenth street.

David, 8 years old, and Gary, 13, were tossing a baseball around the yard when the small brown bat circled down on them. Gary grabbed a stick and, after several swats, managed to strike the creature to the earth. Neither of the boys was bitten.

The boys then trapped the bat, still alive, under the end of a broom until a jar was found. From an encyclopedia the boys learned that small brown bats sometimes attacked people, especially women whose long hair seemed to have some attraction to them.

Getting the bat into the house was another problem. The boys' mother, Mrs. Clarence Dugan, didn't want it. After much assurance from her sons and husband, however, she relented and the bat was brought inside.

The boys are feeding flies to the bat for the present. David plans to put in alcohol later and use the bat for a science exhibit at McKinley junior high school.

FLIGHT CREW OF CHINOOK helicopter, on display Friday and Saturday at the Army Depot, stands before the opened fuselage of the aircraft. Such helicopter have been used extensively in Vietnam for transporting heavy artillery and combat-ready troops. They cruise at 140 miles an hour and can carry a 70-ton payload. The pilots are Second Lieut. Charles Thompson (second from right) and Chief Warrant Officer Carl Hunter (far right).

day's trip and enjoyed the view, helicopter in flight.

After the landing at Scott, Seay commenced what he said was the most enjoyable he had made in his constant round of trips since becoming Imperial Potentate July 14.

Seay, Roy Wilming, 2010 Pontoon road, potentate of Ainal Temple in East St. Louis, and several other Shriners then took a four-hour tour of the base, escorted by Col. Waesche.

They stopped to pay special attention to the 37th Airift Command, which receives and distributes wounded servicemen from Vietnam to various service hospitals across the country.

Through the efforts of Wilming and Ainal Temple, the Airift Command at Scott Base also has transported several emergency burn cases to Shriners hospitals in various parts of the country for Edwardsville water treatment plant at Poag around the southwestern boundary of the Southern Illinois University-Southwestern campus.

The helicopter detoured at a small airfield in Belleville on the way back to the Depot and several others for a tour of the Our Lady of the Snows shrine.

Wilming worked with Col. Charles E. Hoskin III, commander of the Depot in arranging and organizing Seay's visit here. The visit included a luncheon at the Depot on Friday at which Wilming was host.

Whirlwind Visit to Ainal, Depot by Shrine Potentate Includes Fast Whirlybird Trip

A high-speed airlift from the Granite City Army Depot to Scott Air Force Base on Friday afternoon highlighted the first official visit to the Midwest of Thomas F. Seay, Imperial Potentate of the 900,000-member Shrinewood of North America.

Seay and 37 other Shriners, including Quad-Cityans active in the Ainal Temple, jumped aboard a Chinook 47-B helicopter, designed to carry 33 troops, which was on display at the Depot Friday and Saturday.

Traveling at 130 miles an hour, the helicopter covered the distance to Scott Air Force Base in 10 minutes.

The deafening roar of two 2650-horsepower turbine engines made conversation virtually impossible aboard the helicopter. Several Shriners abandoned trying to shout across to their neighbors and resorted to sign language. Seay shouted into the ear of a Press-Record reporter that he thought the ride was "tremendous fun, and the people of Granite City are tremendously warm and thoughtful."

The fuselage of the helicopter resembles the inside of a large bus, except that the seats are arranged lengthwise along the walls. There is a three-foot-high opening at the rear where a ramp stands upward. When on the ground, the ramp is lowered extensively in Vietnam for transporting troops and heavy artillery and other cargo can be driven in difficult terrain. A crew member perched on the top of the ramp throughout the trip.

SHRINE POTENTATE Thomas F. Seay and other Shriners are shown near an 83-foot-long helicopter at the Granite City Army Depot before a flight Friday

Tonnage Through Canal Locks Tops 4 Million in August

August shipments through the Chain of Rocks canal marked the third time this year freight tonnage exceeded the 4-million-ton mark for a single month, though shipments were down from July's record total of 4,417,515 tons, according to the U. S. Army Corps of Engineers.

A total of 454 barges carried 4,189,665 tons of freight through the locks last month, raising the year's eight-month total to 28,252,545 tons, which is 1,852,465 tons above that for the same period last year.

The report said that the August shipments were second only to those in July. Commercial shipmen's tonnage exceeded those upriver 2,211,440 tons to 1,978,125 tons, largely because 1,688,000 tons of grain were shipped downstream against only 26,300 tons upstream. Only 100 tons of government freight were shipped up and downstream through the locks.

Other tonnage shipments in August included: petroleum products, 496,400 upriver and 342,750 downriver; coal, 797,800 up; cement, sand and gravel, 20,450 up and 22,400 down; sulphur, 59,400 up; iron and steel products, 23,600 up and 82,280 down; chemicals, 217,200 up and 25,700 down; and miscellaneous commodities, 346,825 up and 82,280 down.

Including the barges, 9917 vessels passed through the canal locks in August. These included 941 commercial towboats, 18 small craft, eight passenger boats, 388 private recreation boats, six government towboats, 19 government barges, 11 government small craft and 12 government patrol boats.

Over the eight-month period, a total of 39,081 vessels have passed through the locks, including 30,048 commercial barges.

Lock operators reported 1135 lockages during August, compared with 1026 lockages in the same month last year. This increased the number of lockages to 7329 for the year, against 6613 for last year's total through August.

Steve Hylla, 75, Dies; Retired GCAD Guard

Steve Hylla, 75, of 1816 Market street, Madison, died unexpectedly of an apparent heart attack shortly after midnight Thursday. He became ill at home and was taken by ambulance to St. Elizabeth Hospital, where he was pronounced dead upon arrival at 12:10 a.m. Friday. An inquiry is pending.

A native of Posen, Ill., Mr. Hylla had resided in Madison for 35 years. Prior to moving here, he lived in Nashville, Ill. He had retired ten years ago from the Granite City Army Depot where he was employed 15 years as a security guard.

Mr. Hylla was a veteran of world war I and a member of St. Mary's Roman Catholic Church of Madison and Baracks 34, Veterans of World War One. His wife, Mary, died in June of 1965.

Survivors include six sons, Richard and Leonard Hylla, both of Madison, Clarence Hylla of Washington Park, Ill., Lambert Hylla of St. Petersburg, Fla., Robert Hylla of Panton, Mo., and Ralph Hylla of Alton; two daughters, Mrs. Robert (Marcello) Titum of St. Louis and Mrs. Jerry (Norma) Schwendeman of Pittsburgh, Pa.; a brother, Joseph Hylla of Nashville, Ill., and 13 grandchildren.

Funeral services were held today. Details are given elsewhere in this issue.

Jr. College Committee Reorganization Planned

A reorganizational meeting of the steering committee to plan the Lewis & Clark junior college district in Madison county and surrounding counties may be held later this month, Wilbur Trimpe, county superintendent of schools, said today.

The proposed district was defeated in a referendum held last April 1, but Trimpe said from 25 to 30 persons who formerly opposed the plan have contacted him, stating that they would support a second attempt to organize the district.

A date and place for the meeting has not been set. Trimpe's office said that he is in charge of initial arrangements but that he does not wish to head the committee.

Trimpe said the main purpose of the junior college is to provide technical vocational education to aid students in getting jobs. Students would be trained in fields ranging from auto mechanics to hospital technology.

The superintendent added that while vocational schools train a number of technical workers, most are private schools which many students cannot afford to attend.
